

CARTER

Many of these Carter's removed to other sections, many to the Far West.

Green be the grass that grows above the dead, and peace to their memory especially to the one who for eighteen years walked life's rough way by my side, carried her own griefs and sought to assuage my own; and also to her saintly and sainted father and mother, who have followed her to the skies.

And success and happiness to the living.

Written by:

Rev. T.S. Walker
Tusculm, Tennessee
July 1, 1893

From the files of Mrs. Mary Shields Shore, Rockville, Maryland

ABRAHAM CARTER born 1827 married Rebecca J. Byrant , Md.
had issue:
Mary J.W. b. 1841 married Rev. T.S. Walker, March 22, 1865
Martha A.T. b. 1845
Josephene ----- married Mr. Leib.

Greene County, Tennessee

Elias Carter ----1790/1800 (1830 census) married Susannah
Anderson, was son of Daniel who died 1829 & Sarah ----- Carter) 1830 census: son b. 1815/20
 son b. 1815/20
 son b. 1820/25
 son b. 1825/30
 son b. 1825/30

Joseph Carter died 1811 (brother of Daniel) had issue: Joseph (Joseph son of Joseph Carter probably removed, no will found).

Jacob Carter born 1787-----? married 25 January, 1808

Mary Guffie, had issue: Martha born 1832, Fatima, b. 1834

Theres a William Carter b. ca. 1823 wife named Rebecca both give North Carolina as place of birth, had son Jacob E. born 1841

CARTER

Greene County, Tennessee, Will: Elisha Carter

To beloved wife, Margaret, a fifth part of the land where I now live with houses and improvements to have and hold as long as she remains widow then to be divided unto my four sons: Anderson; Benjamine; Melton; Thomas.

to oldest son, Anderson.... lower end of farm begining at mouth of Creek then with meadows to mouth of little Branch, thence various courses so that whole place will be equally divided into five parts.

to 2nd son, Daniel --- land called Ridge Farm, adjoining lands of John Clinger and others.

to 3rd son, Melton.... land east of little Creek, begining at mouth then running with said Creek, Andersons line, to mouth of little Branch direct course to include a little spring.

to 4th son, Benjamine equal share with rest adjoining lands with Melton and Anderson ... then my beloved wife's share comes next.

to youngest, Thomas upper end of farm, and when my wife ceases to be my widow, he shall have the buildings.

to oldest daughter, Nancy... a nag, valued at $75. together with her saddle also $200. one bed with bed clothes and furniture also one cow and calf, one large pot and a baker, one pair of hooks, one ewe and lamb and wether.

to youngest daughter, Susannah & Jemima, equal portions with daughter Nancy, to 3 youngest sons, Melton, Benjamine, & Thomas each one bed with bed clothes & furniture, each one cow & calf, one large pot and baker, one pair of hooks, one yew & lamb & wether... likewise to Benjamine; his grey horse also my son Thomas one horse worth $75 together with saddle, all shares evaluted and whatever Daniel's share is valued above the rest of boy's the same shall be equally divided among the girls.

to wife all my stock & household furnishings as long as she is widow.

Signed Elisha Carter

Son: Daniel executor

Witnesses: John Clinger
John Kenney

dated, 25 March 1837

Greene County, Tennessee marriage records:

Above Elisha married Margaret Anderson, 15 August 1809.