

MISS CALLIE OBEY

Miss Callie Obey was born March 14, 1876.

She was reared in a Christian home. In 1882 she connected herself with the St. Cyprian's Episcopal church. January 17, 1894, she was married to Ben Addington. There was born to this union one boy and one girl, Viola and Richard.

As a church worker her work has not been surpassed. For forty-seven years she has been a pillar of this church.

During these forty-seven years the Episcopal bell has not rung many times without her presence. Many a Sunday she has read and taught her Bible to one or two children. But where she led, there were always those that would follow. The Missionaries have lost a strong-hold thru the passing of this never tiring worker.

Mrs. Addington was a beaming light to this community. She is one that took part willingly in every worth-while undertaking. She is a star that stands alone in the firmament of a working community.

Her voice is still but her work shall never die. As a neighbor she was loyal to everyone. And as a nurse for the sick she had the community at heart. Wherever there was a call she answered.

She leaves to mourn her departure, a husband, one sister, one brother, a son and daughter, a son-in-law and granddaughter, two nieces, five nephews, and a host of friends.

She lived to see the ripe old age of fifty three years seven months, and eleven days. Now she sleeps.
