

Tom Alley

Funeral services for Tom Alley, 70 of the Otto Community, who died Friday, Sept. 6, at Angel Community Hospital after a long illness, were held at 2 p. m. Sunday at Asbury United Methodist Church.

The Rev. John Foster officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

A native of Jackson County and the son of the late John H.

and Pauline Hooper Alley. He had been chairman and was active in the Democratic Party of Macon County. He was a retired farmer and station owner and operator. He was interested and active in community and church projects.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Beatrice Mozeley Alley of the home; a brother, Morris Alley of Pamplin, Va.; three sisters, Mrs. Helen Lewis of Whittier, Mrs. Rubye Bumgarner and Miss Edith Alley of Sylva; and a number of nieces and nephews.

The pallbearers were: Bob McClure, Michael Bolin, Ned Conley, Zeb Alley, David Proffitt and Max Vinson.

Honorary pallbearers were: Arthur Blaine, Max Parrish, George Moses, Robert Stewart Ed Henson and Thomas McDowell, Jr.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.