

Mr. Ammons

Frank L. Ammons, 81, of Franklin, died Monday, July 23, in a nursing home in Asheville.

A native of Macon County, he was a son of the late Lon and Candus Henry Ammons. He was a retired mechanic, U.S. Army Corps veteran and a bluegrass musician. He was a member of Clarks Chapel Methodist Church.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a daughter, Barbara Janet Ammons, who died in 1951; two brothers, Gordon Ammons, and Eldon Ammons and one sister, Dorothy Leopard, all of Franklin.

He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Edith Brown Ammons; two sons, James Hazen Ammons and Bobby Frank Ammons, both of Franklin; two brothers, Carl R. Ammons and Fred II. Ammons, both of Franklin, two granddaughters and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 25, in the chapel of Macon Funeral Home. Revs. Roy Lowe, Keith Ashe and Eddie Hollifield officiated. Burial was in Clarks Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery with military graveside rites conducted by the VFW Post 7339 and American Legion Post 108.

Pallbearers were Thomas Ammons, Bruce Ammons, Drew Ammons, Bruce Fox Lewis Ashe and Phillip Lowe.

Memorials may be made to the American Legion Post 108.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
