

J. B. Ammons

James Bartlett Ammons, 82, of Route 5, Franklin, died Thursday, February 10, in a local hospital after a period of declining health.

A native of Macon County, he was a son of the late David and Catherine Ashe Ammons and was married in 1911 to Laura Gregory, who survives. He was a retired farmer and timberman.

Also surviving are three sons, Harrison, of Route 5, Franklin; Parker of Columbia, S. C., and Fred, of Marietta, S. C.; six daughters, Mrs. Leila Adams and Mrs. Lem Holland, both of Franklin, Mrs. Charles Hollifield of Salem, Va., Mrs. Thomas Frisbee, of Sedro Woolley, Wash., Mrs. Mamie Stiles of Lyman, Wash., and Mrs. Fred Price of Terribone, Ore.; one brother, John Ammons of Winston-Salem; 25 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, February 12, at Elijah Missionary Baptist Church, of which Mr. Ammons was a member, and burial was in the church cemetery. Officiating ministers were the Rev. Gene Hawkins, pastor, and the Rev. Fred Sorrells.

Neal and Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.