

DIES IN FALL —

George E. Anderson Rites Held Friday

MR. ANDERSON

back out of the way of a tree he was felling and fell over a rock wall about 10 feet to the ground. He landed on his head on the frozen road and died instantly, according to Coroner John Kusterer.

Funeral services for Mr. Anderson, who was a veteran of World War I, were conducted on Friday, the 1st, at the Cartoogechaye Baptist Church, of which he was a member. Officiating were the Rev. Gene Southards, the Rev. Andrew Cloer, and the Rev. George Cloer. Burial was in the Woodlawn Cemetery at Franklin. Members of V.F.W. Post 7339 serving as pallbearers were Norton Holbrooks, Zeb Meadows, Charles Conley, Kenneth Clark, Boyd Long, and Lon Dalton.

George Edgar Anderson, 69-year-old farmer of the Upper Cartoogechaye community, was killed in a fall Tuesday, January 29, near his home.

Cutting timber with Arthur Collier, he tripped on an iron stake while moving

Mr. Anderson saw service in France and Belgium in World War I. He was the son of the late Robert Alexander and Mrs. Lasaphine Texas Pendergrass Anderson. He was married April 11, 1920 to Miss Maude Irene Sweatman, of this county, who survives.

Also surviving are two sons, Victor Anderson, of Sedro-Woolley, Wash., and Maj. Hunter Anderson, with the U.S. Air Force in Arlington, Va.; a daughter, Mrs. Bertie Billinger, of Baltimore, Md.; a brother, Nonley Anderson, of Franklin, Route 2; two sisters, Mrs. Van Frazier, of Franklin, Route 1, and Mrs. Julia Williams, of Arcata, Calif.; and five grandchildren.

Arrangements were handled by Bryant Funeral Home.