

H. L. Anderson, 85, Passes Sunday Morning

Hamilton Love (Pomp) Anderson, 85, died at his home on Harrison avenue on Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, following an illness of 5 months.

Funeral services were conducted at the St. Agnes Episcopal church on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the Franklin cemetery.

Member of the Junaluske Lodge No. 145 of the Masonic Order of which he had been a member for more than 50 years, served as pallbearers and had charge of the final rites at the graveside. Members of the Nequassa Chapter Order of the Eastern Star were in charge of the flowers.

Mr. Anderson was born in Tennessee on June 25, 1858, and came to Franklin with his parents when a small child, and had made his home in Macon county since that time. He was a carpenter and cabinet maker by trade and for several years worked for the Georgia Power and Light company at Tallulah Falls, Ga.

He was married to Miss Lella Sellers of this county, who preceded him in death about three years ago. He was a member of the St. Agnes Episcopal church, being a Christian gentleman in his every relation of life. Always kindly and thoughtful of others.

The Franklin Press, 18 May 1944