

MRS. ANDERSON PASSES FRIDAY

Funeral Sunday Attended
By Large Number Of
Family And Friends

Mrs. Lelia Sellers Anderson, wife of Hamilton L. Anderson, died Friday night at 10 o'clock, after an illness of only six hours. While engaged in her household duties, Mrs. Anderson was stricken with apoplexy and never regained consciousness. She was taken to Angel hospital where the end came a few hours later. Her passing came as a shock to her family, relatives and friends as she appeared to be in good health.

Mrs. Anderson was the daughter of the late Reagan Sellers and Heseer Rogers Sellers, of Franklin Route 4, and had lived in Macon county all her life. She was born on January 16, 1876. In November 1896 she was married to Hamilton L. Anderson who survives her. Mrs. Anderson was a member of St. Agnes Episcopal church. She was one of the few surviving members who attended the consecration of the church 54 years ago.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. Agnes church and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Her nephews acted as pallbearers: Roger Ammons, J. C. Cunningham, Owen Ammons, Frann Sellers, Paul Ammons and John Cunningham. Interment was in Franklin cemetery.

Surviving besides the husband are five children, Hugh Anderson, of Twin Falls, Idaho; Mrs. George Reid, of Detroit, Mich.; Lawrence Anderson, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Julian Waldroop, of Franklin and George Anderson, of Detroit, Mich., and seven grandchildren. Also four sisters; Mrs. Ed McConnell, of Baker City, Ore.; Mrs. Elias Ammons of Franklin Route 4; Mrs. Clayton Moffitt and Mrs. Charles B. Bolick, of Arlington, Va.; and two brothers: Joe Sellers of La Grande, Ore., and Wiley Sellers of Franklin
