

R. C. Anderson Taken By Death

Robert C. Anderson, 67, farmer of the Tellico community of Macon county, died Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at his home following an illness of three days due to heart trouble.

A native of Macon county, he was married to Miss Lou DeHart in 1898.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock at Tellico Baptist church. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the widow; two sons, Robert Furman of Rabun Gap, Ga., and Ralph of Stiles; three sisters, Mrs. John DeHart, of Tellico; Mrs. Harley Mason of Stiles; and Mrs. Jennie Stagle of Stiles; two grandchildren and three brothers, James of Tellico; Mike of Iotla; Tom of Gastonia; and a number of nieces.

The Franklin Press, 8 April 1943