

James Donald Andrews, 55, of Arden, S.C., died Tuesday, October 31, 2006, at Mission Hospitals.

He was born Feb. 8, 1951, in Toccoa and was a longtime resident of the Arden area. He owned Jesse's of Arden, also known as "the jeans shop."

He was preceded in death by his father, Cleo Andrews Jr.

Survivors include: his mother, Helen York Andrews of Arden; a son, Jesse Daniel Andrews of Mount Pleasant, S.C.; a daughter, Sarah Andrews of Columbia, S.C.; a brother and sister-in-law, Trip and Linda Andrews of Duluth; and a half-brother and sister-in-law, Curtis and Renie Beck of Clayton.

A memorial service was held Friday at Fletcher United Methodist Church. Funeral services were held Saturday at Acree-Davis Funeral Home in Toccoa. Burial followed at Sunshine Methodist Church Cemetery in Mize. Memorial donations may be made to Fletcher United Methodist Church.

The Clayton Tribune, Nov. 9, 2006

Andrew Jackson "Jack" Crain, 83, of Highlands, N.C., died Wednesday, Nov. 1, 2006, at Highlands-Cashiers Hospital.

He was born in Rabun County to Andrew Nathaniel and Bessie Mae Billingsley Crain. He was a former president of the Highlands Lion's Club. He was a member of Flats of Middle Creek Baptist Church.

Survivors include: his wife of 62 years, Carrie Chastain Crain; a daughter and son-in-law, Lucille and Steve Nix of Clayton; two sisters, Roberta Crain of Scaly Mountain, N.C., and Kay Bryant of Anderson, S.C.; a grandson and his spouse, Lamar and Melanie Nix of Clayton; and three great-grandsons.

Funeral services were held Friday at Clear Creek Baptist Church with the Revs. Kenny Kilby, Walter Wilson, Oliver Rice and Everett Brewer officiating. Burial followed at the church cemetery.

Bryant Funeral Home in Franklin, N.C., was in charge of the arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Nov. 9, 2006