

Robert "Bobby" Armes, 53, formerly a Franklin resident and graduate of Franklin High School, passed away on Wednesday, Jan. 31, 2007, in Kingston, Tenn.

Owner of Armes Ceramic Floor Covering, Bobby worked throughout the Knoxville area.

He is survived by his wife, Joy Golden Armes; three sons, Dwayne and wife Christa of Birmingham, Ala., Travis Armes of Kingston, Tenn., and Wesley Armes of Oak Ridge, Tenn.; one granddaughter, Rylee Armes of Franklin; parents, Pete and Imogene Armes of Kingston; two brothers, Paul and wife Linda of Mesa, Ariz., and Ronnie of Kingston; a sister, Brenda and husband Tony Hughes of Philadelphia, Tenn.; and several nieces and nephews.

Bobby was a loved son, brother, husband, father and grandfather who will be greatly missed. He continued his giving with a donation of matching organs to others in need.

Funeral services were held Friday, February 2, at 8 p.m., in the Kyker Funeral Home Chapel in Kingston, Tenn., with Rev. John Underwood officiating.

Burial was Saturday, Feb. 3, at 11 a.m., at Roane Memorial Gardens in Rockwood, Tenn.

Pallbearers were Jerry Queen, Danny Shope, Stephen Armes, Nathan Armes, Jerry Hamilton, Lawrence Nabors and Terry Beard.

The Franklin Press, 9 February 2007