

Harley R. Arnold

Harley Russell Arnold, 72, of Highlands, died Friday, September 8, in a Greenville, S.C., hospital after an illness of three months. He was a native of Massachusetts, a son of the late Edwin B. and Hattie Arnold and was married to the former Miss Bonzie Hunt, of Georgia, who survives.

A retired mechanical engineer, he was an inventor and a designer of equipment used in paper manufacture. He was a member of Highlands United Methodist Church.

Graveside rites and burial were in Highland Memorial Park on Sunday, September 10, the Rev. Conrad Washom officiating. Pallbearers were Frank Cook, Joe Fowler, Norman Reece, Woodrow Wilson, Bud Lamb and Everett Sumner.

Surviving, in addition to the widow, is a son, Hartley Hunt Arnold, of West Monroe, La., and two granddaughters.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
