

MRS. ASHE, MACONIAN, DIES FRIDAY

Passes At Atlanta
Home At Age Of 69;
Rites Held Sunday

Mrs. Eric Potts Ashe, 69, wife of Thomas Baxter Ashe, died Friday at her home in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Ashe was a native of this county. She and her husband had been living in Atlanta for about 15 years, where he is employed by the Georgia Power Company. She was a member of the Baptist church.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 3 p. m. at the Couch's Riverside Chapel in Atlanta by the Rev. Guy Owen and the Rev. John Tippett. Burial was in Crest Lawn Memorial Park.

A number of relatives from here attended the funeral.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Ashe is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Carl Higdon, of Princeton, W. Va., Mrs. Frank Hogue, of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. J. D. Shirline, of Atlanta, and Mrs. H. L. Seckinger, of Carrollton, Ga.; two sisters, Miss Beatie Potts and Mrs. Arvid Swafford, both of Franklin; two brothers, L. W. and J. L. Potts, also of Franklin; and eight grandchildren.