

MAN DIES FROM WRECK INJURIES

Porter Ayers Of Flats Succumbs Following Automobile Accident

Porter Ayers, young man of Flats in the Nantahala section of Macon county, died at Angels' hospital Tuesday morning after being brought to the hospital here last Sunday night in an unconscious condition with a four-inch skull fracture and a skull decompression on the right side of his head, the result of an automobile accident on Highway No. 10 near Nantahala station on Sunday afternoon. He did not regain consciousness after an operation.

Ayers was riding with John and Grady May, brothers, and Harley Jones, all of Flats. John May was the driver of the automobile, and is reported to have been driving rapidly when forced too close to the edge of the highway by another automobile. The car left the highway and overturned. He is under the care of an Andrews physician, having received injuries not considered dangerous. Grady May and Jones escaped with only slight injuries.

The Franklin Press, 19 June 1930