

Sue Badger

Sue Badger, formerly Emma Sue Dalton, of Bend, Ore., died January 29, 2003.

She was born in Tiger, Ga., on October 11, 1943, and moved to the northwest in 1966. She had been a resident of Bend since 1973.

From 1983-1997, she owned Sue's Christmas House, Bend's first year-round Christmas store. Since 1997 she had been employed at Ronald McDonald House in Bend.

Survivors include her daughter, Susan Kellar, of Portland, Ore.; her father, L.G. Dalton, of Michigan; a brother, Stephen, and his family, Debbie, Matthew, Emily and Zachary Dalton, of Suwanee, Ga.; a sister, Nancy Short, of Clayton, Ga.; a nephew, Charles Dalton, of Florida, and many cousins and friends. She was preceded in death by her mother, Louise Ramey Dalton, and two brothers, Charles Dalton, Sr. and Kenneth Dalton.

A memorial service will be held in Clayton sometime in March or April. Details will be announced through Beck Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Ronald McDonald House of Central and Eastern Oregon, Hospice of Bend-LaPine, or the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Tampa, Fla., in honor of Colin Santos.

This announcement is made courtesy of Beck Funeral Home.

The Clayton Tribune, Feb. 6, 2003