

Carl Dewey Bailey, 84 of Waynesville, formerly of Franklin, passed away Sunday, May 27, 2007, at Silver Bluff Nursing Home.

He was born in Macon County on Jan. 11, 1923, to the late Frank and Lottie Barrett Bailey. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a son, Dewey Oliver Bailey; two brothers, Elwood and Robert Bailey; and two sisters, Lola Pressley and Ethel Lee Hollifield.

He was a longtime member of Allens Creek Baptist Church. He enjoyed flying airplanes and bluegrass music and was a member of the Civil Air Patrol. Most of all, he loved his family.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Swannoa Eatman Bailey; a daughter, Norma Bailey Carroll and husband Rev. Homer Carroll of Weaverville; and a sister, Viola Morgan of Sylva.

Services were held Wednesday, May 30, at 3 p.m., at Allens Creek Baptist Church, with the Revs. Eddie Dietz and Lloyd Fish officiating.

The family received friends Tuesday, May 29, from 7 to 8:30 p.m., at Garrett Funerals and Cremations.

Burial was in Garrett Hillcrest Memorial Park with the VFW and American Legion Posts providing Military Honors. Pallbearers were Larry Smith, Lynwood Oakley, Robert Kelley, Jimmy Bailey, Mark Freeman and Mark Burris.

Garrett Funerals and Cremations was in charge of the arrangements.
