

Colonel Robert Thomas Bailey

U.S. Army Colonel (ret.) Robert Thomas Bailey, retired, 67, of Franklin, passed away Wednesday, Aug. 17, 2005.

A native of Canton, Ga., he was the son of the late Lee Newton Bailey and Lillian Porter Bailey. He was preceded in death by a sister, Anne Bailey.

He retired from the DeKalb County Board of Health Finance Department. He was a U.S. Army Vietnam veteran and enjoyed playing golf.

Surviving are his wife of 36 years, Ellen Bailey; a daughter, Nadine Bailey and fiance, David Martini of Buford, Ga.; a brother, Lee Bailey Jr. of Big Canoe, Ga.; mother-in-law, Virginia LaFenetre of Franklin; one niece and one nephew.

Memorial services were held Monday, Aug. 22, at noon, in the Memorial Gardens at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Family, in Jasper, Ga. Rev. Mary Johnson officiated.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Episcopal Church of the Holy Family, 202 Griffith Rd., Jasper, GA 30143.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Online condolences may be made by visiting www.maconfuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 23 August 2005