

Dr. John Calvin Baker, 93, of Club House Drive, Highlands, passed away Friday, July 27, 2007, at Highlands-Cashiers Hospital.

He was born in Jones County, Texas, the son of the late William Calvin and Martha Bell Mann Baker.

He was a WWII veteran of the U.S. Army, where he served as a captain. He practiced dentistry until he was 83 years old in Abilene, Texas. He was of the Presbyterian faith.

He is survived by a son, Dr. J. Scott Baker and wife Rebecca; one granddaughter, Bailey Elizabeth Baker; and one grandson, Forrest Baker.

A memorial service was held Wednesday, Aug. 1, at Chestnut Hills. Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Robert L. "Bobby" Kendall Jr., 52, of Franklin, passed away Tuesday, July 31, 2007.

A native and life long resident of Macon County, he was the son of Robert L. Kendall Sr., and the late Wanda Crisp Kendall.

Bobby was in the construction business and was of the Baptist faith.

Surviving in addition to his father, Robert L. Kendall Sr., are his wife, Kathy Kendall; one daughter, Brooke Schramm and husband Ben of Raleigh; one brother, Tony Kendall of Franklin; and three grandchildren, Isaac, Sydney and Joshua Schramm.

A private memorial service will be held at a later date. Macon Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Online condolences are available by visiting www.maconfuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 3 August 2007