

Ona Baker, 90, of Tiger, died Saturday, May 10, 2008, at Mountain Lakes Medical Center.

She was born in Rabun County to M.E. and Cordelia Lovell Baker. She worked in the textile industry. She was a member of Rocky Grove Baptist Church.

Survivors include: three nephews and a niece, Jerry Nunnally of Cornelia, Russell Robinson of Franklin, N.C., and John Bramblett and Judy McClain, both of Tiger.

Funeral services were held Monday at Rocky Grove Baptist Church with the Revs. Rusty Wolfrey and John Gipson officiating. Burial followed at Shook Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, March 15, 2008