

Mrs. Barnes

Lucille Houston Barnes, 59, of Westminster, S.C., formerly of Franklin, died Saturday, Jan. 21, at her residence after a period of declining health.

A native of Macon County, she was a daughter of the late Gordon G. and Dovie Mae Southards Houston. She was a machine operator for Sangamo-Weston for 10 years and belonged to Temple Baptist Church.

Surviving are the husband, Charlie H. Barnes; four daughters, Gearlene Talley of West Union, S.C., Maxine Eades and Margaret Wilbank of Salem, S.C., and Birdell Beck of Walhalla, S.C.; three sons, Virgil Barnes of Demorest, Ga., Marvin Barnes of Habersham, Ga., and Charles Barnes of Toccoa, Ga.; three sisters, Pearl Franks of Glenville, Dorothy Criswell of Groves, Texas, and Lois Bryson of Nokomis, Fl.; two brothers, John and Willard Houston of Highlands; seven grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Buck Creek Baptist Church. Rev. Cliff Harvey officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were Tony Talley, Roger Eades, Roger Beck, Avery Miller, Glenn Holland, and Micah Wilbanks.