

V. G. Barnett Claimed By Death

Victor Grant Barnett, 81, died here Thursday morning. He had been in ill health since coming to Franklin in April of this year.

A native of Hartford, Conn., Mr. Barnett came here from St. Cloud, Fla., where he and his wife had been making their home.

Mr. Barnett's early life was spent on the farm and later spent a number of years in the hardware business in Arkansas, before he retired about 20 years ago.

The body was sent to Hartford, for funeral services and interment.

Surviving besides the widow, the former Miss Melissa May, are one sister, Mrs. J. B. Rogers, of Urbana, Ill., and one brother, U. C. Barnett, of Little Rock, Ark. Also a number of nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Barnett plans on returning to Franklin for the summer months.

The Franklin Press, 6 July 1944