

DEATH CLAIMS
J. G. BATES, 91,
AT OTTO HOME

J. G. Bates, 91-year-old Confederate veteran of Otto, died at his home about 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. The funeral was to be held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Coweta Baptist church with the Rev. E. R. Eller, pastor of the First Baptist church of Franklin, officiating.

Mr. Bates was a member of company B, 39th N. C. Regiment in the Confederate army.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Alice Carpenter, of Toccoa, Ga., and by four sons, Elbert Bates, of the state of Washington, Hanover Bates, of Otto; Dan Bates, of Texas, and Melvorn Bates, of South Georgia.

The Franklin Press, 14 July 1932