

Cheryl Bauer

Cheryl Bauer of Mountain City died Saturday, March 1, 2003, after a sudden illness.

Born in Rockville, N.Y., on Dec. 31, 1950, she is survived by her husband, Joe Bauer, and her daughter, Jessie Bauer. She was the daughter of the late Howard Vescovi and of Arlene Vescovi who resides in Franklin, N.C. She is survived by two brothers, Dava Vescovi and Steven Vescovi; and one sister, Terry Hansburry. A brother, Mark Vescovi, preceded her in death.

She lived in New York and Florida before making her home in Rabun County. She worked in the travel industry for many years and was the owner of Go Travel in Clayton. She attended Rabun Gap Presbyterian Church and was active in the Parents Association at Rabun Gap Nacoochee School, where her daughter is in the sixth grade. She was a graduate of Berner High School in Massapequa Park, N.Y., and a former member of the Presbyterian Memorial Church choir in St. Augustine, Fla. She was an avid cook and gardener. She enjoyed crafts, music and her pets. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends in her home.

A memorial service was held Monday, March 3, 2003, at Rabun Gap Presbyterian Church.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the American Cancer Society, 2200 Lake Blvd. N.E., Atlanta, Ga., 30319 in memory of Cheryl Bauer.

This announcement made by Beck Funeral Home. An online memorial register book will be available at www.beckfuneral-home.com.

The Clayton Tribune, March 6, 2003