

Daniel Webster Beasley

Daniel Webster Beasley, 65, of Franklin, N.C., died Saturday, Sept. 25, 2004, at Habersham County Medical Center after an extended illness.

He was the son of George Edward and Lexie Maney. He worked in the construction industry and was a heavy equipment operator. He was a member of First Christian Church of Mountain City.

Survivors include: his wife, Pat Beasley of Franklin, N.C.; two daughters, Polly Shampin and Janice Reliford of Clayton; two sons, Stanley Beasley of Athens and Chris Beasley of Mountain City; a stepdaughter, Teresa Thomas of Commerce; a stepson, Lewis Bryson of Fon du Lac, Wis.; three sisters, May O'Shields of Tiger, Rosie Lamb of Clayton and Nellie Henslee of Dillard; four grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; five stepgrandchildren; and a stepgreat-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Taylors Chapel Baptist Church with the Revs. Thomas Burrell, Thomas Taylor and Bill Towe officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

McGahee-Griffin and Stewart Funeral Home, Cornelia, was in charge of arrangements.

This announcement is courtesy of Hunter Funeral Home.

The Clayton Tribune, Sept. 30, 2004