

J. W. Beck's Funeral Held In Highlands

Funeral services for James W. Beck, 40, who died in a Franklin hospital Friday afternoon following a week's illness, were held Saturday afternoon at the Highlands Baptist church, with the Rev. Doyle Burgess, of Greenville, S. C., officiating. Burial was in Highlands cemetery.

Pallbearers were James Crawford, William H. Baty, Dan Vinson, Thomas Potts, L. C. Billingsley and Floyd Lamb.

Mr. Beck was the son of Charlie Beck and of the late Mrs. Katherine Alexander Beck, and was a member of the Baptist church. He had operated the American Shoe Shop here for the past 12 years. He was married in 1933 to Miss Beulah Henry, who survives.

Surviving, in addition to his widow and father, are six sons, James W., Jr., Sammy Eller, Henry, Johnny, Gilbert, and William Howard, all of Highlands; and two brothers, John and Hugh Beck, of Highlands.

Bryant Funeral home, of Franklin, was in charge.
