

Terry B. Benfield, 48, of Rabun Gap, died Thursday, Jan. 18, 2007, at Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville.

He was born April 26, 1958, in Rabun County to Howard B. and Ola Mae Gibson Benfield. He worked as a manager of frozen foods and dairy products at a grocery store. He was a great fisherman. He also was of the Baptist faith and attended Newman's Chapel Baptist Church in Otto, N.C.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Kenneth Howard Benfield.

Survivors include: his wife, Glenda Bruner Benfield of Rabun Gap; a son, William S. Wehr of Rabun Gap; a nephew, Kenneth H. Benfield of Savannah; a niece, Jill Stephens of Mount Airy; and several cousins.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Hunter Funeral Home with the Rev. Danny Cannon and Lloyd Hunter officiating. Burial followed at Bethel Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Jan. 25, 2007