

Willa Mae Thomas Bingham

A homemaker and Baptist

Willa Mae Thomas Bingham, 94, a resident of Franklin, died Monday evening, Dec. 23, in the Thomasville Medical Center. She was born in Macon County, a daughter of William Thomas and Mary Sanders Thomas. She was a homemaker and a member of Amazing Grace Baptist Church in Thomasville. She was preceded in death by her husband, William L. Bingham.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Cabe, Lucille Rogers and husband, Gary, and Esta Mae Bingham, all of Thomasville, and Mrs. Martha Webb of Franklin; three sons, Edward Bingham and wife, Thelma, Jerry Bingham and wife, Elizabeth, and Jim Bingham and wife, Billie, all of Thomasville; 25 grandchildren and 39 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday, Dec. 27, at J.C. Green & Sons chapel. Rev. Hillis Burton and Rev. Clayton Hulin officiated. Burial followed in Friendly Gospel Baptist Church Cemetery.

Memorials may be sent to Thomasville Medical Center, 207 Old Lexington Road, Thomasville, NC 27360.

The Franklin Press, 30 December 2002.