

Della Ester Lowery Black, 94, of White, died Sunday, Aug. 6, 2006.

She was born Jan. 7, 1912, in Cherokee County to Joseph M. and Lula Keever Gramling. She retired from Cartersville Undergarment and was an active member of White United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by: her first husband, Wash Lowery; her second husband, Bill Black; a son, Billy Joe Lowery; and two stepsons, the Rev. Dane Black and Billy Mac Black.

Survivors include: two daughters, Ruth Lowery Mullinax of Clayton and Edna Tucker of the Center community; two sons and daughters-in-law, Bobby J. and Vickie Lowery of White and Wayne and Doris Lowery of Pine Log; 10 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; several great-great-grandchildren; a stepdaughter-in-law, Ethel Black of Cartersville; and a stepson and stepdaughter-in-law, Wendell and Johnette Black of Rogers, Ark.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from White United Methodist Church with the Rev. Susan Taylor officiating. Burial followed at White Cemetery.

Owen Funeral Home in Cartersville was in charge of arrangements. Announcement courtesy of Hunter Funeral Home.

The Clayton Tribune, Aug. 10, 2006