

Carl T. Blaine

Carl Theodore Blaine, 36, of Route 2, Franklin, died Tuesday, November 11, of injuries sustained in a traffic accident on Highway 441 South of Franklin in the Mulberry Community. He was a native of Macon County, a son of Paul Blaine, of Franklin, and Mrs. Annie Mae Blaine, of Route 2, Franklin, and was married to the former Miss Margie Nichols, who survives. He was employed by the Tugalo Construction Company.

Funeral services were held Thursday, November 9, in West Franklin Baptist Church, of which he was a member, and burial was in Mt. Zion Cemetery. The Rev. William Rice and the Rev. Dan Stiles were the officiating ministers and pallbearers were Don Ledford, Chester Stanley, Robert Enloe, Dick Bingham, and Jack and Kenneth Nichols.

Surviving, in addition to the wife and parents, are two sons, David Carl and Charles Blaine, both of the home; one brother, Bud Blaine, of Franklin; and one sister, Mrs. Richard Compton, of Spartanburg, S.C.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
