

Mrs. Fleta Gibson Blaine, a long-time Macon County elementary school teacher, died Monday as the result of an auto accident.

Mrs. Blaine was the daughter of Arthur and Neta Hedden Gibson. She had married twice, having married Carl Mason, Sr., who died in 1928 and Robert Blaine, who died a few years ago.

A school teacher for the past 40 years, she had taught in Towns County, Georgia and the Macon County school system.

Funeral services will be conducted at the First United Methodist Church in Franklin, of which she was a member, Thursday morning (today) at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Donald Haynes, pastor and Rev. C. E. Murray, former pastor, will conduct the service.

Pallbearers will be Hamilton Bryson, Don Seagle, Jimmy Hauser, Bob Cain, H. A. Wilhide, and Frank Jamison.

Mrs. Blaine is survived by one son, Carl Mason, Jr., of Franklin; one brother, Fred A. Gibson, of Ilwassee, Georgia; and two sisters, Mrs. Freda G. Johnson, of Jacksonville, Florida, and Mrs. Jayne G. Neff, of Gainesville, Florida.

The family received friends at the Bryant Funeral Home from seven to nine Wednesday evening.

A request has been made by the family that donations be made to the Angel Community Hospital in lieu of flowers.

Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild and the Sally Moore Sunday School Class of the First United Methodist Church in Franklin will attend the service in honor of Mrs. Blaine.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
