

Mrs. Bohanon

Services for Esther Louise Martin Bohanon, 63, formerly of Franklin, who died Thursday, March 23, in a Royston, Ga., hospital, were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in Riverview Methodist Church. Revs. Doug Carpenter, Keith Ellis and Paul Brooks officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Grandsons and sons-in-law served as pallbearers.

A native of Macon County, she was a daughter of Thomas Pink Martin of Franklin and the late Mary J. Barker Martin. She was a retired seamstress.

Surviving, in addition to her father, are her husband, John Bohanon; four daughters, Louise Hayne of Columbia, S.C., Marcelle Jiles of Smyrna, Ga., Marlene Patton of Douglasville, Ga., and Carol Musholt of Panama City, Fla.; a son, Houston "Boe" Barker of Lithonia, Ga.; three sisters, Chloe Burnette of Bristol, Va., Elsie Lewis of Candler and Kathryn May of Newnan, Ga.; two brothers, Kermit and Claude Martin of Anderson, S.C.; nine grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Memorials may be made to Riverview Methodist Church, c/o Pink Martin, 184 Lakey Creek Rd., Franklin.

The Franklin Press, 27 March 1989