

Gertrude Luebbert Bohres

Gertrude Luebbert Bohres, 88, of Bees Hive Road, Franklin, passed away Thursday, May 26, 2005, at Angel Medical Center.

Born in Dixon, Mo., she was the daughter of the late Philip and Catherine Bauer Luebbert. She was preceded in death by a sister, Anna Rowdon.

She was a secretary and a homemaker. She was a member of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church where she was former head sacristan and eucharistic minister, a secular Franciscan and a member of the Knights of Columbus Auxiliary.

She is survived by her husband, Jacob Bohres; two sons, Gary Bohres and wife Barbara of Palm Coast, Fla., and Randall Bohres and wife Margaret of Clermont, Fla.; two sisters, Clare Gloriot of Miami Shores, Fla., and Frances Hydro of Franklin; five brothers, Edward Luebbert of St. Elizabeth, Mo., Leo Luebbert of Jefferson City, Mo., Bernard Luebbert of St. Charles, Mo., Charles Luebbert of Tipton, Mo., and William Luebbert of Florissant, Mo.; four grandchildren, Keith Bohres, Jeffrey Bohres, Brian Bohres, Brittany Bohres; and one great-granddaughter, Ethany Bohres.

Funeral services were held Saturday, May 28, at 10 a.m., at St. Francis Catholic Church with Father Jim Cahill officiating.

The Knights of Columbus served as pallbearers.

The family received friends from 9 to 10 a.m., Saturday, at the funeral home prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, 120 Executive Park, Building 1, Asheville, NC 28801.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
