

ness. She was married to the late Herbert T. Boozer. She was born in Savannah, Ga., to Tattnail Rowland Pritchard and Ann Margaret Cunningham Pritchard. She taught school in the mountains of North Carolina and even taught young Andy Griffith of later acting fame. She also taught in Atlanta for a number of years before moving to Franklin in 1981. She was an active member of First Presbyterian Church in Franklin.

She is survived by a daughter, Molly Boozer; a granddaughter, Taylor Boozer Arnold of Franklin; a nephew Mark Johnson; a niece, Jan Hoover Johnson (wife of the late Dale M. Johnson Jr.); a great-niece, Abby McColl Johnson; and a great-nephew, Matthew Pritchard Johnson, all of Savannah.

Memorial services were held Tuesday, Dec. 30, at the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Bob Abell officiated.

Memorial gifts may be made to First Presbyterian Church of Franklin, or to Hospice Savannah, 1352 Eisenhoe Drive, P.O. Box 13190, Savannah, GA 31416.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Margaret Pritchard Boozer

A retired school teacher

Margaret Pritchard Boozer, 86, died Dec. 27, after a long ill-

The Franklin Press, 6 January 2004