

John M. Brabson

John Miller Brabson, 85, of Demorest, Ga., died unexpectedly at his home Wednesday, March 24. Funeral services were held Thursday, March 25, at McGahee Funeral Home, Cornelia, Ga., and burial was in Yonah Memorial Park, Demorest.

Mr. Brabson was a son of the late Dr. A. C. and Cora Rush Brabson, of Macon County, and was married to the former Miss Mary McDowell. He and his family lived in the Coweeta Community, Macon County, until they moved to Demorest in 1935.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by four sons, James Brabson, of Clarksville, Ga.; Sam Brabson, of Cedar Town, Ga.; Tom Brabson, of Abbing-ton, Va.; and Max Brabson, of Macon, Ga.; one sister, Mrs. G. M. Bulgin, of Franklin; one brother, Maurice Brabson, of Route 2, Franklin; 11 grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

Mr. Brabson, a retired farmer, was a member of Junaluska Lodge #145 AF & AM in Franklin for 59 years and, in 1962, was awarded an honorary Life-time Membership by the Lodge.