

Marie Lindley Brandon, 78, of Cairo, died Wednesday, Nov. 29, 2006, at Presbyterian Home in Quitman.

She was born to Martin Emmett and Hazel Gertrude Lawson Lindley. She graduated in 1950 from Montevallo College in Alabama and worked as a librarian. She was a member of Cairo First United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph Brandon.

Survivors include: two sons, Kenneth Brandon of Thomasville and Scott L. Brandon of Roswell; a daughter, Donna B. Young of Fort Wayne, Ind.; a brother, Emmett Palmer Lindley of Dayton, Tenn.; and two grandchildren, Brandon Young, and Wes Young, both of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Clark Funeral Home in Cairo. Burial took place Sunday at Rabun Gap Presbyterian Cemetery with the Rev. Richard Soper officiating.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Dec. 7, 2006