

Joe Brank Killed In Fall At Chimney Rock

Mrs. John Hall and other members of her family attended the funeral of her grandson, Joe Brank, 21, at Weaverville Presbyterian church, Tuesday afternoon.

The young man was killed instantly on Monday when he fell over the 300-foot precipice at Hickory Nut Falls, near Chimney Rock. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Brank of Stony Knob, two brothers, Scott Jr. of Birmingham and Glenn, who is reporting this week for the Navy. Mrs. Brank is the former Miss Pearl Hall. Joe is well known here where he was a frequent visitor to his grandmother and other relatives.

The Franklin Press, 9 September 1943