

Betty Lou Miller Brown, 72, of Toccoa, died Monday, July 25, 2005, at Rabun County Hospital.

She was born Sept. 23, 1932, in Detroit to Edward Reed and Margaret Lawton Miller. She spent the greater part of her life in the Bradenton, Fla., area. She was a bookkeeper for Water's Bookkeeping. She was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Bradenton, Fla.

Survivors include: her husband, Joseph Brown; a nephew, Kenneth Laws and niece, Adrena Laws, both reared in the home.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. today at Evergreen Memorial Park Cemetery in Athens.

Hunter Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, July 28, 2005