

Burco Emory Brown

Burco Emory Brown, 52, of Otto, died Wednesday, March 31, in a Greenville, S. C. hospital from accidental burns he received a month ago. He was a veteran of World War II and a cabinet maker.

He was a member of Calvary Baptist Church. Funeral services were held Friday, April 2, at Sugarfork Baptist Church with Fred Sorrells, Rev. Earl Dendy, and Rev. William Rice officiating. Burial was in Sugarfork Baptist Church Cemetery. Nephews served as pallbearers.

Surviving are the widow, Dorothy Adams Brown, of Otto; the father, John Brown; one sister, Miss Zelma Brown, of Warne, N.C.; four brothers, Harold Brown, of Highlands, Paul Brown, of Otto, Cecil Brown, of Dillard, Ga., Route 1, and James Brown, of Pontiac, Mich.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 8 April 1971