

Mrs. James L. Bryson Dies In Northwest

Mrs. James L. Bryson, of West's Mill, has received a message from Yakima, Wash., announcing the death of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Mallonee Buchanan, who died at her home there on July 29.

Mrs. Buchanan was born and reared in Macon county. She went to Sylva where she spent 18 years prior to her going to Washington where she has spent the last 15 years.

Mrs. Buchanan is survived by the following: her mother, Mrs. M. V. Mallonee, of Arlington, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. Nannie Cowan, of Arlington, Wash.; Mrs. J. L. Bryson, of West's Mill, and five brothers, Joe Mallonee, Sylva; Joe Mallonee, Almond; Dave Mallonee, Darrington, Wash.; Jess Mallonee, of Yakima, Wash., and Ben Mallonee, of Arlington, Wash.

The Franklin Press, 19 August 1937