

J. L. Buchanan, Native Of Macon, Succumbs At Son's

A native of this county, James L. Buchanan, died at the home of his son, Elmer Buchanan, in Lawrenceville, Ga., on October 3.

Eighty-eight years old, Mr. Buchanan was the son of James L. and Mrs. Martha Brown Buchanan.

Funeral services were conducted at Dryman's Chapel the day after his death by the Rev. L. E. Crouch and the Rev. R. L. Poindexter. Burial was in the church cemetery.

In addition to his son, Elmer, Mr. Buchanan is survived by another son, E. K. Buchanan, of Franklin, Route 2, a half-brother, Cling Brown, of Otto, a half-sister, Mrs. Ernestine Carpenter, of Prentiss, 19 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Grandsons serving as pallbearers were Kenneth, Neville, James, Elias, Jr., Herman, and Hayes Buchanan.

Wages Funeral Home, of Lawrenceville, was in charge.