

Mrs. Buchanan Dies At Son's Home At Patton

Mrs. Laura Ellen Buchanan, 91, a native of Jackson County, died November 29 at the home of her son, General Jones, in the Patton community.

She came from Jackson County in 1949. She was the widow of A. D. Jones, who died in 1931, and a member of Barker's Creek Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted December 1 at the Rockdale Baptist Church by the Rev. C. C. Welch.

In addition to her son, General Jones, she is survived by two other sons, Ben, of Whittier, Route 1, and Lyle, of Sylva; five daughters, Mrs. Lon Seagle, of Franklin, Mrs. Curley Kinsland, of Route 4, Mrs. Johnnie Davis, Mrs. Weaver Nations, and Mrs. Kelley Bradley, all of Whittier, Route 1; a sister, Mrs. Sarah Frady, of Sylva; two brothers, Charlie and Lum Buchanan, of Green's Creek; 45 grandchildren; and a number of great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Donald Seagle, Grover Davis, Cecil Ward, Wiley Jones, Lloyd Jones, and Harry Kinsland.

The Franklin Press, 4 December 1958