

Lyndon Buchanan

Services for Lyndon Gordon Buchanan, 58, of the Savannah Community, in Jackson County, who died Saturday, August 15, were held at 2 p.m. Monday in New Savannah Baptist Church, of which he was a deacon, Sunday School teacher and former Sunday School superintendent.

The Rev. Glenn Blanton, the Rev. John Reid and the Rev. Tim Norman officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Alvin Fulbright, Wiley Collins, Glenn Turpin, Andrew Wilson, George McMahan and Ralph Tatham.

Honorary pallbearers were Paul Buchanan, Len Barron, Ralph Angel, Frank Jones, Dewey Cochran, Lawrence Tilley, Charlie R. Wilson, and Quentin Bishop.

Mr. Buchanan, a lifelong resident of Jackson County, was a brick mason and a member of the Woodmen of the World Camp No. 560.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mildred Houston Buchanan; three daughters, Mrs. Howard E. Burch of Thomasville, Mrs. William Hopper of Franklin and Miss Connie Nadine Buchanan of the home; four brothers, Kenneth C. of Asheville, Jesse F. of Dillsboro, Cecil G. and Frank H. Buchanan, both of Sylva; five sisters, Mrs. Mary B. Herring of Sylva, Mrs. Crate P. Brown of Candler, Mrs. James Guffey of Greeneville, Tenn., Mrs. R. Lee Gardner and Mrs. David E. Rathburn, both of Asheville; and two grandchildren, Bill Hopper and Eric Burch.