

Native Of Macon Dies At Home In Missouri

News was received here Thursday by Mrs. W. B. McGuire stating that her brother, Lawrence G. Bulgin, had died at his home in Lebanon, Mo., Thursday morning at 11 o'clock following a lingering illness.

Mr. Bulgin, a native of Macon county, had made his home in Salem, Ore., Tacoma, Wash., and Lebanon, Mo., since a young man. For some time he had been in the lumber industry. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bulgin, of near Franklin.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church at Lebanon, of which he was a member, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

Surviving are the widow; three sons, Mac, Edward and Lawrence Bulgin, all of Lebanon; two sisters, Mrs. W. B. McGuire, of Franklin, and Mrs. A. F. Corbin, of Diamond, Mo.; one brother, J. R. Bulgin, of Carrollton, Mo.; one half-brother, Dr. S. J. Bulgin, of Long Beach, Calif.; and one half-sister, Mrs. J. E. Wilhelm, of Los Angeles, Calif.
