

Edward W. Bultman, 95, of Sky Valley, died Sunday, Dec. 16, 2007, after a brief illness.

He was born and educated in New York City and spent a number of years living in Miami Beach, Fla. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II, receiving a Silver Star for valor in the face of the enemy, Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, American Campaign Medal, Europe-Africa-Middle East Campaign Medal, World War II Victory Medal and National Defense Service Medal. After the war, he became one of the founders of the first television station in Miami Beach. He moved to Sky Valley in 1975, where he worked for Sky Valley Resort until he retired. He was an organizing director of First Clayton Bank & Trust Company. He was an avid bridge player and an aficionado of the big band sound.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth Richardson Bultman.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Beck Funeral Home. Memorial donations may be made to Boggs Mountain Humane Shelter.

Beck Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. An online guestbook is available at www.beckfuneralhome.com.
