

Thomas Marvin Burkey

Thomas Marvin Burkey, 74, of Tiger, died Friday, June 11, 2004, at Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville.

He was born in Oklahoma City to Leonard and Rose Veronica Brandt Burkey. He was an accountant and bookkeeper with General Motors and was a member of St. Helena Catholic Church. He served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War.

Survivors include: his wife, Phyllis J. Burkey of Tiger; a son and daughter-in-law, Michael Leonard and Mary Burkey of Austin, Texas; a daughter and son-in-law, Katherine and Neil Meyers of Alpharetta; a brother, James Burkey of Ucon, Okla.; two sisters, Patricia Knight and Bonnie Burkey, both of Oklahoma City; and a grandson, Kevin Meyers of Alpharetta.

A memorial service was held Wednesday at St. Helena Catholic Church with the Rev. Lewis Zarama officiating. The body was cremated.

Memorial donations can be made to the St. Helena Catholic Church Building Fund, P.O. Box 534, Clayton, GA 30525.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, June 17, 2004