

Mrs. Byrd

Dies In Georgia; Rites Held At Aquone

Mrs. Alle Byrd, a native of Macon County, died at her home in Rabun Gap, Ga., January 31, after an illness of about a year. She was 67 years old.

Funeral services were conducted at the Aquone Baptist church February 2, at 2 p. m. by the Rev. Weldon West, of Andrews.

Born September 15, 1884, Mrs.

Byrd was the daughter of Manson Anderson and Mrs. Josephine Baldwin Anderson. She was married to George Byrd in 1902, and was a member of the Dillard Baptist church.

Surviving are her husband; three sons, General and Claude Byrd, of Hickory, and Donald Byrd, of Andrews; two daughters, Mrs. Beulah Dereberry, of Andrews, and Mrs. Florence Brooks, of Rabun Gap; two sisters, Mrs. Louellen Humphrey, of Gainesville, Ga., and Mrs. Fannie Jacobs, of Franklin; two brothers, Charlie Anderson, of Swannanoa, and Riste Anderson, of Arkansas; and 19 grandchildren.

Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral home.