

Mr. Cabe

Charlie Wilburn Cabe, 54, of 98 Cabe Rd., died Tuesday, May 2, in an Asheville hospital after a period of declining health.

He was a native of Macon County, and a son of the late Jake D. and Edna Cabe. He had worked as a heavy equipment operator for the N.C. Department of Transportation for 12 years, and was owner and operator of a backhoe service for several years.

Surviving are his wife, Ruby Jones Cabe; a daughter, Anella Brackett of Canton; three sons, C. David Cabe of Wilkesville, Steven Cabe of Tiger, Ga., and Daniel Cabe of Atlanta, Ga.; four sisters, Betty Cole and Catherine Keener of Franklin, Mary Jo Freeman of Lawrenceville, Ga., and Villa Mae Jones of Lilburn, Ga.; a brother, Don Cabe of Florida; and six grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday in First Assembly of God, of which he was a member. Revs. Tom Grubb and Mike Barres will officiate. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Jack Hodgins, Rodney Bishop, Doug Welch, Marshall Mann, Mitchell Roland and Tommy Tysinger.

The family will receive friends from 7-9 p.m. Wednesday, at Bryant Funeral Home, where the body will remain until 30 minutes before the services.

Memorials may be made to the National Kidney Foundation of North Carolina, P.O. Box 2383, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515.
