

Services For Cansler Infant Held Monday

Funeral services for James Frederick Cansler, 8-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cansler, of Franklin, were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Franklin Baptist church.

The Rev. M. W. Chapman, pastor, the Rev. J. F. Marchman, former pastor of the church, and the Rev. Hoyt Evans, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, officiated. Burial was in the Franklin cemetery.

The infant died at a Sylva hospital early Sunday morning. He had been at the hospital since Thursday.

Surviving are the parents; the paternal grandfather, Zeb Cansler, of Franklin; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baldwin, of Franklin; the maternal great-grandfather, George Parrish, of Franklin, Route 3; and the paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Tippett, of Franklin.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral Home.
