

Mrs. Pallie Carnes

Mrs. Pallie Maybelle Welch Carnes, native of Macon County and resident of the Rose Creek Community, died November 7 in a local hospital. She was 67 years of age.

The daughter of Allen J. and Lou Holbrooks Welch, she married Harley J. Carnes.

Funeral services were held November 9 at the Tellico Baptist Church with Rev. Theron Slagle and Rev. Fred Cook conducting the service. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Carnes' six sons served as pallbearers.

Survivors of the deceased, besides her husband, include six sons, Ted Carnes, of Franklin, Thomas Carnes, John Carnes and Zell Carnes, of Monroe, Ga., Joe Carnes, of Lumberton, and Jack Carnes, of Covington, Ga.; four daughters, Mrs. Madge Roper, of Monticello, Ga., Mrs. Katherine Smith, of Clearwater, Fla., Mrs. Ruth Edwards, of Belle Glade, Fla., and Mrs. Eugene Raby of Commerce, Ga.; four brothers, Carl Welch, Everette Welch, and Floyd Welch, all of Franklin and Jud Welch of Philadelphia, Pa.; two half-brothers, Harold Welch, of Charlotte, and Odis Welch, of Franklin; one half-sister, Mrs. Texie York, of Clarksville, Ga.; and one sister, Mrs. Anna Lois Black, of Franklin.

Neal - Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.