
Mr. Carpenter

John Henry Carpenter, 76, of 135 S. Skeenah Rd., Franklin, died Wednesday in Mountain City, Ga.

A native of Macon County, he was a son of the late Jess W. and Mellie Gladwell Carpenter and the husband of Icia Stamey Carpenter, who died in 1972. He was a retired lumberman and sawmiller and was a 19-year employee of Zickgraf Hardwood Company. He was a member of Black Mountain Baptist Church.

Surviving are five sons, Kenneth, Jess Ernest and Eugene Carpenter, all of Franklin, Harold and Marvin Carpenter of Mount Holly; two sisters, Nola Carpenter of Otto and Grace Wilbanks of Clayton, Ga.; five brothers, Bob, Jack, Calvin, Tom and Bill Carpenter, all of Otto; 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 11 a.m. Saturday in the chapel of Bryant Funeral Home.

The Rev. Danny Cannond and Rev. Claude Ledford officiated. Burial was in Coweeta Cemetery. Nephews served as pallbearers.